Washington Service Corps and AmeriCorps

AmeriCorps is a national network of hundreds of service programs that address crucial community needs in partnership with local nonprofit and government organizations throughout the United States.

The Washington Service Corps (WSC), administered by the state Employment Security Department, is one of the largest AmeriCorps programs in the country, supporting several hundred members.

Benefits of Partnership

By partnering with us, your organization can expect WSC to provide:

- Full-time service members to serve your program participants
- Training for your staff to gain understanding of WSC processes
- Living allowance for members
- Payroll/timekeeping services
- Health care for members
- Training and professional development for members
- Technical assistance throughout the service year.

AmeriCorps members provide direct service to participants in programs provided by local governments, non-profits, tribal nations, community and faith-based organizations, and schools in order to address unmet needs.

Mission

WSC's mission is to promote and support community-based initiatives through the service of AmeriCorps members-in effect transforming communities. The goal of WSC programs is to bridge the gap of under resourced communities through outcome-based practices that produce measurable data, resulting in community members acquiring or accessing disaster services, economic opportunity, education support, environmental education, healthy futures, and opportunity for youth.

What You'll Need

- Program participation fee for each WSC member serving at your organization
- A staff member to mentor and supervise your WSC member(s)
- Collaboration with WSC program staff to recruit and then support your WSC member(s) through their term of service
